

A BRIEF HISTORY OF OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA CHURCH

Dedicated in 1882, St. Patrick's Cathedral located on the plot of land on North Carancahua now occupied by the American Bank Plaza, became the Cathedral of the Diocese of Corpus Christi when the Diocese was formed in 1912. Leading contributors to the church were Captain Miflin Kenedy, who donated land, money, and pews. Mrs. Kenedy, who donated the sanctuary windows, and the wife of then Corpus Christi Mayor, J. B. Murphy, gave the statues. The ladies of the altar society gave the main altar. Various parishioners, in memory of their deceased family members, donated the other stained glass windows. As the Diocese grew, a new cathedral was planned and was dedicated in 1940. St. Patrick's continued to have daily Mass for the children of Incarnate Word Academy then located nearby. In 1951, after it caught fire, the church was dismantled and the sanctuary and main part of the nave were moved to the present location to serve the newly created "Our Lady Star of the Sea" parish. The altar, statues and stained glass windows were saved and reinstalled in the little church. Thus a portion of the old St. Patrick's Cathedral remains standing, a memorial to the pioneers of Corpus Christi. Over the years, the parish has grown to include families from all parts of Corpus Christi, Portland, Gregory, Taft, Aransas Pass and Ingleside who seek a small "country church" atmosphere of worship and fellowship. In addition, our parishioners represent a broad cross-section of cultures and backgrounds from various parts of the United States and a number of foreign countries.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - Weekend of January 16 & 17, 2016

In today's second reading, Saint Paul makes a list of gifts dispensed to members of the Christian community by the Holy Spirit. Each gift bestowed has a specific purpose for the person for whom it is intended: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation. Good stewards know these gifts are not meant to be kept hidden by the recipient but to be shared with the community and beyond. As we begin a new year, let us reflect on the gift the Holy Spirit has given to each of us. Do we recognize this gift? How was it intended that we use this gift? Are we being good stewards of this gift? Retrieved from: catholicstewardship.org

We are glad you joined us this weekend.

When we open ourselves to God's actions within and around us, the most life-changing transformations can occur. Thus we become a community transformed by love - and given extravagant gifts of the Spirit! We are called to bring our best to the world, to transform it as well.

Let us pray that our prayer this weekend opens us to the Spirit and strengthens us to bring transforming love to our families and our world so desperately in need.

Readings for this Sunday:

Is 62: 1-5. God loves us like a spouse. God holds us in a covenant of love.

1 Cor 12: 4-11. Many gifts - one Spirit.

Jn 2: 1-12. Jesus' public ministry begins as he meets the needs of others - Jesus transforms life.

If I am out, or unavailable when you call, please leave a message and I will get back to you as soon as I can. I hope you are having a wonderful, relaxing, and fun weekend. olss_cc@yahoo.com

Please be careful when walking in front of the church. Causeway Boulevard runs directly in front of the church and blends with the parking lot. An unsuspecting parishioner could be walking in front of the church and not realize that motorists are driving along the road.
